

Government of Western Australia
East Metropolitan Health Service

Living better

with lung disease through exercise

Acknowledgements Page

Artist Juanetia 'Neta' Knapp

Neta Knapp was born in Gnowangerup, a small town in the South West of Western Australia and raised at the Roelands Mission.

Nyoongar Boodjah - Nyoongar country has six seasons. This painting represents Makuru (winter) when the land is wet, the rivers and water holes are full and all the plants are green.

Illustrator Patrick Bayley - created a visual image of the lung and inserted the Nyoongar Boodjah artwork into the design, the result is both beautiful and educational. The exercise images throughout the publication are also drawn by Patrick. All illustrations and photos remain the property of East Metropolitan Health Service.

Original resource prepared by:

Nola Cecins and Dr Sue Jenkins, Pulmonary Rehabilitation Physiotherapists, Physiotherapy Department, Sir Charles Gardner Hospital.

Adapted culturally appropriate version prepared by:

Physiotherapy Department RPH, East Metropolitan Health Service, and Community & Population Health Aboriginal Community Health.

Acknowledgement is given to all community members and team members who assisted and shared their knowledge for the final production of this resource.

Warning to all Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander people, this publication may contain photographs of deceased persons.

We respectfully acknowledge the past and present traditional owners of this land, the Whadjuk people of the Noongar Nation.

Healthy People, Amazing Care
Koorda Moort, Moorditj Kwabadak