Costs of treatment, deposits and guarantees of payment

At admission, the hospital can only provide an estimate of the charges. These may vary depending on the treatment provided.

As an overseas visitor, unless covered by RHCA arrangements, the hospital requires either a written guarantee of payment or a full deposit of the estimated charges.

Making a payment

You can make a payment using one of the following options:

- EFTPOS
- Cash
- Credit card

Overseas visitors

As an overseas visitor, you will be required to pay for your treatment if you do not have one of the following:
- Valid Medicare card
- Eligibility under the Reciprocal HealthCare Agreement (RHCA) with Australia
- Refugee/asylum seeker status

Private health or travel insurance

You will need to contact your insurance provider to check your level of cover, and request a written guarantee of payment for the hospital patient liaison officer.

Please note that you are responsible for payment of any excess or gap fees applicable to your account.

All overseas visitors will need to provide:
- Passport & Visa
- Insurance details
- Contact details for both your home country and Australia
- RHCA visitors may be asked to provide proof of residency of their home country and proof of their European Health Insurance Card

Overseas visitors with a Reciprocal Health Care Agreement (RHCA)

Overseas visitors holding a valid visa and being a resident of a Reciprocal Health Care Agreement (RHCA) country are covered only for ill-health or injury which occurs while you are in Australia and requires necessary treatment before returning to your home country. RHCA is not intended to replace travel health insurance and do not cover planned treatment, procedures, or operations.

In order to receive entitlements under the RHCA, you will need to provide your passport, proof of country of residence, and any other documentation required by overseas visitors as evidence of eligibility from one of the following countries:
